HELP US STAMP OUT CONFORMITY IN YEARBOOKS

How will Randolph meet the educational challenges of the 70's? During the coming decade, a greater emphasis will be placed on learning rather than a stress on teaching. The need of each individual student will determine that specific avenue of instructional approach related to the demands of the time. Teachers will become learning consultants and, thus, the quality of learning will be tomorrow's measure of assessment.

THE 1971 ORACLE

Senior Class Publication
Randolph High School
Randolph, Massachusetts

TYPE OF BOOK
CHECK ONE

- ☐ BOOK A
☐ BOOK B
☐ BOOK C

Experience is the best teacher.

Educational tasks of the 70's will be accomplished by the student's employment of sophisticated memory banks and mechanical supplements to learning.

Color guard salute RHS

Roberta Fitzgerald concentrates on her art project.

Edith Nilsen prepares tomatoes for lunch.

Asst. Principal, Mr. Richard Power, supervises the new construction.

Linda Adams and Kathleen O'Connell get an early start on lunch.

plus...

We are for:

... peace and brotherhood

... helping others

... furthering our education

Independent study and learning through the student's own experiences will be encouraged as tomorrow's rule rather than today's exception.

... community service

Randolph's finest Cross Country Runners take a breather.

The best years of your life are happening now.

Office Asst., Lorraine Grace, aids student in need.

Equally important, the school and the community will meet the related needs and demands which the education in the 70's will require.

Francine Donahue and Bruce Caswell admire new teacher.

Jocelyn Nielacny helps out with the construction of a poster.

Profile

RHS takes on a new face as workmen rush to complete the new school.

... our administrators

improve on perfection,
so we give you more of it.

... our teachers

... our school

... our teams

The 70's will present the challenges . . . Randolph High will be prepared to meet them.

The school will reach out into the community and both the school and the community will benefit. This interplay of experiences will make for sounder, more meaningful learning.

See it like it is

Co-Capt. Jack O'Riley reflects the devilish image on his sleeve.

Quarterback Frank Sauve barks out signals to center Joe Young.

Steve Brack keeps his balance for ten more yards.

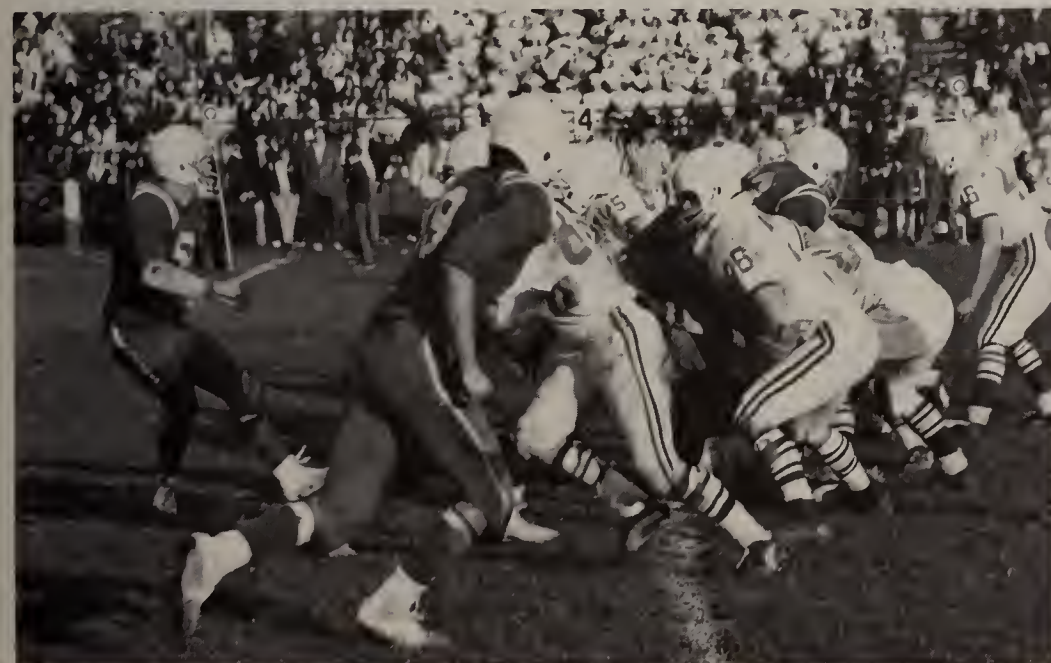

Coach Phil Carlino is in one of his rare dejected moods as the team's great season didn't allow him to be that way often.

Cheerleaders attract attention as team looks on at the game.

Fullback Mark Gelb dives into the end zone for the winning touchdown against Plymouth Carver.

The defensive line puts on a great rush as Kevin Crowley drops back to cover for a pass.

Co-Capt. George Kiley and Joe Young look on anxiously as the team drives for another score.
